WELL-RECEIVED FILM RETURNS FOR SECOND SHOWING

'YOU.SLEEP.STAY' Is Back

Back by popular demand, YOU.SLEEP.STAY. returns for one more powerful screening, this time on our main stage. This deeply moving documentary invites audiences into the world of Fred, a Deaf, intellectually and developmentally disabled elder who has lived at Polk State Center for over 70 years.

Tuesday, June 3

6:30 p.m.

Tickets $10

As the institution is set to close, and Fred prepares to leave the only home he has known since he was a young child, the film immerses viewers in the rhythms of his daily life—his experience of time, his connections with others, and the unique ways he navigates language and community. More than just an observational portrait, YOU.SLEEP.STAY. offers a deeply felt exploration of what it means to belong, to care, and to bear witness. Through a rich cinematic approach that prioritizes presence and empathy, the film challenges audiences to reflect on the ways we build institutions, forge family bonds, and show up for our communities.

SURE TO BE A PAWS-ITIVELY UNFORGETTABLE PERFORMANCE
